Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Antiquarian and Architectural Year Book The Antiquarian and Architectural Year Book is intended to gather into one view all discoveries and proceedings for the year, both in Primeval and Mediaeval Antiquities. To afford notices of new Ecclesiastical Structures, and the restoration of buildings of the same character, where the erection or adaptation arc of sufficient magnitude to warrant description. To supply information on important works on Antiquities, Architecture, c., published during the year. It is evident that to the Antiquarian, the Architect, and the Man of Research, the Year Book is calculated to prove of value and assistance. Although approval and co-operation from many eminent Antiquarians and Architects have been received, the work has undergone strict personal care and attention, and is published under Editorial responsibility. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work.
