

The New Intimacy: Discovering the Magic at the Heart of Your Differences

By Judith Sherven

Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 334 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.4in. x 1.0in. When a relationship is new, everything is brilliant and exciting. Then, as the glitter of first attraction dims and the reality of differences between the partners emerges, people who truly love each other too often give up and say, We have nothing in common, or This cant works, its too hard. Rather than learn how to keep their love alive and thriving, they use difficulties caused by their differences to sabotage the relationship. In truth, however, it is the differences between people that bring them closer together. When two people make a conscious decision to navigate the rough waters of their differences, only then can they achieve a deep, spiritually nourishing intimacy richer than anything they ever imagined possible. In their breakthrough book, The New Intimacy, Judith Sherven and Jim Sniechowski, husband and wife and two of the countrys most popular relationship trainers, guide readers on an illuminating adventure of the heart. Drawn from case studies, contemporary culture, and their own lives, the authors share with clarity, vision and candor how to turn conflict and disappointment into rich opportunities for learning, mutual...
