Faith-Based Schools in Latin America: Case Studies on Fe y Alegria

By Juan Carlos Parra Osorio, Quentin Wodon, World Bank Publications

World Bank Publications. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Faith-Based Schools in Latin America: Case Studies on Fe y Alegria, Juan Carlos Parra Osorio, Quentin Wodon, World Bank Publications, This volume is devoted to an assessment of the performance and selected aspects of the management and pedagogical practices of Fe y Alegria, a federation of Jesuit schools serving approximately one million children in 20 countries, mostly in Latin America. Many observers consider Fe y Alegria a successful organization, but very few rigorous evaluations have been conducted. The available quantitative evidence suggests that the federation's schools often do reach the poor, and that students in Fe y Alegria schools tend to perform as well on test scores, if not slightly better, than comparable students in other schools. Qualitative data and case studies suggest that the factors that lead to good performance are complex and related not only to the types of 'inputs' or resources used by the schools in the education process, but also to the management of these resources and the ability to implement and test innovative programs. Other factors that support this argument include the capacity and flexibility to implement and test innovative programs that take into account...
