Excerpt: . . . 15 priately balance energy development and environmental protection, and imposes mitigation measures to ensure that approved projects are developed in an environ-mentally responsible manner. . VI CONCLUSION There is a great deal of potential for the development of additional hydropower projects throughout the country, in-cluding small projects and marine and hydrokinetic projects. Working within the authority given it by Con-gress, the Commission continues to adapt its existing, flexible procedures to facilitate the review and, where ap-propriate, the approval of such projects. Commission staff remains committed to exploring with project developers, its sister federal agencies, Indian tribes, the states, local gov-ernment, and other stakeholders every avenue for the re-sponsible development of our nations hydropower poten-tial. The legislation under consideration will, as I have tes-tified, assist in realizing that potential. This concludes my remarks. I would be pleased to an-swer any questions you may have.
