CHAPTER LETTER DEPARTMENT Mu Dear Zetas: Drury has opened and with it another year in the history of Mu Chapter. Only a few weeks have passed and the first thrill of getting acquainted is hardly over. On glancing about we find an unusually large number of Freshmen this year and an amazing supply of good material. Rush week is to be sometime in November, so you can imagine how true it is that everyone of us is on tip-toes looking for prospectives. No doubt most of you have already pledged, and to you who have, we send congratulations, hoping you have been as successful as a true chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha deserves to be. Then, to the new pledges we send our heartiest regards and make for them the one best wish we are capable of making, the wish that they everyone may soon be wearing the Shield itself. It is very probable that, as you are reading this, Mu Chapter will have a loyal band of pledges, too, ready to give their best for Zeta Tau Alpha. In our next letter we will introduce them, but for the present we can only work and hope. As the college...
