THE COWBOY CALL: LIVING FOR JESUS IN THE WESTERN WORLD (PAPERBACK)

Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Dale Hirschman (illustrator). 203 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .For decades, rodeo cowboys held the reputation of being beer-drinking, woman-chasing, barroom-brawling hoodlums-a reputation many cowboys went above and beyond to earn. However, in the early 1970s, some cowboys went about changing that image. Several cowboys who professed a relationship with Jesus Christ decided to step into the light with their Christian faith. The Cowboy Call: Living for Jesus in the Western World is a compilation of short stories and testimonies of people doing just that-living out their faith in a setting where bulls are more common than Bibles, where the modern day cowboy spends more time in the saddle than he does in a church pew, and where the great outdoors offers spiritual insights aimed directly at the heart. Join author Dale Hirschman as he takes you inside the arena and out into God s creation, sharing encouraging and inspirational lessons about following Christ wherever you are.
